

XM radio provides a great service to those of us who wish to pay for the high quality they provide. They provide a wide variety of channels to listen to, most without the annoying commercials (which is why we pay a fee). Banning satellite radio from providing these services would in essence be censorship. I am strongly opposed to banning any service provided by satellite radio, and I am opposed to petition 04-160.

Brett Cox